

Historical Milestones

As stipulated in the Laws of Seychelles, under the current registration of Associations Act (Chapter 201- revised in 1991) all prospective NGOs must duly complete and submit application form, accompanied by the following supporting documents.

The corporate name and place of business of the organisation / association

The constitution of the organisation/ association

The names, occupations and addresses of the Executive Committee Members

Minutes of proceeding of meeting comprising the resolution of the members of the association appointing the Executive Committee Members

The rules of the organisation / Association

Applications are usually evaluated and NGOs informed of the decision in writing, within seven working days. Once registered, the NGO is issued with a Certificate.

Please note that no application fee is levied for the Registration of NGOs.

It is mandatory for all NGOs to:

Provide details of any change to its Constitution and Executive Committee.

Furnish the Registrar with a return of all Officers of the NGO and the annual audited accounts before the 31st January each year. Failure to comply shall result in a fine of Rs25 per day.
